

UNICEF cards showcase area artists

Five artists, including three from Ottawa, have their work featured on UNICEF Christmas cards, which are available at several retailers. The Ottawa artists are Katerina Mertikas, whose painting features a toboggan scene; Barbara Tindale, whose work portrays an outdoor hockey rink; and Terry Annany, whose painting illustrates an outdoor curling game.

Other featured artists are Jordanka Yaretz, from Rosedale, British Columbia, and Linda Sanderson, from Toronto.

The UNICEF Christmas in Canada cards packages are available in sets of 10 for $13.50 and sets of 20 for $27. The cards are sold nationally and are available locally at IKEA, Pier 1 Imports and Ten Thousand Villages.

Details of featured works by Terry Annany, left, and Katerina Mertikas.